

Infrared Camera Rental

AIT offers a wide selection of Infrared cameras for short and long term rental.

- Infrared camera rentals free up cash tied up in owning IR assets, converting fixed costs into variable costs
- You suffer no maintenance or calibration costs of borescope equipment when you rent
- Infrared rental means that we maintain and store the remote inspection equipment
- 24-hour technical back-up is guaranteed in most locations worldwide
- Infrared rental gives you access to the widest range and most up-to-date technology
- Renting infrared cameras allows you to limit your costs to the duration of any given project
- IR camera rental allows you to meet unexpected changes in project requirements
- Rental of Infrared cameras ensures expertise in the selection of the rented equipment
- Renting AIT's equipment for a remote project is cheaper than shipping in your own equipment from further away
- Rental of infrared cameras ensures that no money is tied up in equipment not being used

WHY RENT?

Renting infrared cameras and other inspection equipment from AIT is the most cost effective way to meet your inspection requirements.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT

AIT is ready to serve you with expert advice on the best equipment for your application. AIT's staff has decades of on hand infrared experience and is intimately familiar with the capabilities of all our equipment and practically every application imaginable.

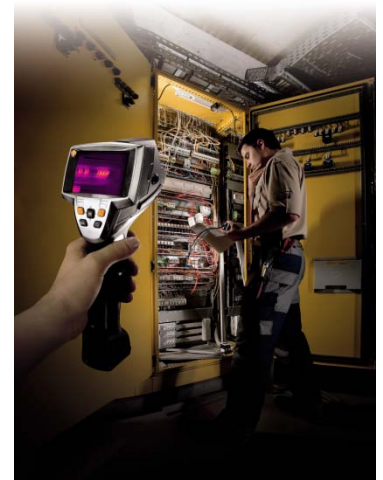

ZERO DOWNTIME

Nothing is worse than showing up for an inspection only to find that you have the wrong equipment or it is not working properly. AIT maintains a large inventory of remote inspection equipment that is ready when & where you need it.

Renting Infrared cameras is the most cost-effective way to meet your thermal inspection requirements.

Available Equipment:

- Infrared Cameras with 160 x 120, 320 x 240 and 640 x 480 resolutions.
- Modern up to date infrared cameras with all the features you expect.
- Digital Images are captured and easily transferred to your PC for reporting and sending emails of your inspection results to colleagues.
- Temperatures of up to 500° C can be inspected with AIT choice of infrared camera rentals.
- Infrared reporting software is included with all camera rentals. AIT makes sure your are able to complete your inspection and create professional reports of the work you have done.

Applications for Infrared Camera Rentals Include: Electrical Inspection, Mechanical Inspection, Energy Audits, Process Monitoring, Roofing Inspection and Mold & Moisture Detection

7777 N. Wickham Rd
#12-557
Melbourne, FL 32940
United States
Phone +1 (321) 752-3928
<mailto:info@aitproducts.com>
<http://aitrents.com/>